Designing the best spaces with the finest details

Our Vision

Our objective is to build market-leading new homes in locations ready for regeneration.

We, Acres Developers always believe that our customers shall always be our partners in the long journey. Hence, our partners should never feel left out! We try to deliver more than they can expect! We work together and develop long term relationships to achieve the best results.

With our discipline focused consultants, we are confident in our ability to deliver. Since we began, our objective has been to build market-leading new homes in locations ready for regeneration - where people would want to buy, either to live or invest, at highly competitive prices.

With focus on urban real-estate development, we have established an enviable reputation for our affordable luxury, value for money and developments at the right locations.

We at Acres, are dynamic, committed and creative. We are always willing to talk with and learn from our customers with whom we are happy to share our specialist property knowledge, something they consistently find to be of great benefit.

We emphasize on time bound projects and the right quality of construction. Being innovative with latest architectural solution enhances our abilities to deliver better.

We aim to exceed our own and our customers' expectations.
